

FULL TIME PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Advanced Physical Therapy, Inc. is an outpatient orthopedic manual therapy clinic owned by IPA Primary Instructor Timothy Wittenauer, PT, CFMT and located in Midlothian, VA (a suburb of Richmond). Tim is also the Director of Sports Science and the team physical therapist for the NHL Florida Panthers.

We have an immediate opening in our Midlothian clinic for a manual therapist who is a Certified Functional Manual Therapist or is committed to seeking certification in Functional Manual Therapy with the IPA. Continue to develop your skills and learn new ones in a comfortable and supportive clinic. Become part of a small, motivated, cutting edge practice. Work in a very pleasant and open clinical environment with a superior and supportive staff and a highly motivated patient base. Enjoy a competitive salary, PTO, and excellent educational benefits. Most importantly, we offer an environment for the physical therapist who wants to be proud of his/her manual skills and of his/her profession.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Current Virginia Physical Therapy License. Bachelor's degree/MS, DPT, Graduation from an APTA approved school.
- Current certification in cardiopulmonary resuscitation is required.
- Experience is preferred, but new/recent grads will be considered if they have clinical training in manual therapy and strong references to that effect.
- Functional Manual Therapy (IPA) interest preferred.
- Commitment to clinical protocols and compliance with all job requirements, such as respectful and timely treatment of patients, timely completion of all notes and paperwork, dedication to working well with our referral sources and our amazing staff.

The Richmond metropolitan area is a prime location:

- an hour and a half south of Washington, DC.
- one hour west of the Atlantic Ocean and beautiful beaches
- about one hour east of the Shenandoah Mountains
- Surf and swim, ski or hike, sight see, tour plentiful vineyards and breweries, and attend countless food, folk and art festivals year round.
- Richmond also boasts kayaking, rafting, tubing and canoeing in the James River, miles of hiking and biking trails throughout James River Park and is one of the only cities with a class 5 rapids within the city limits!
- The University of Richmond and Virginia Commonwealth University call Richmond home, and numerous museums and theatres are in town.
- And Richmond is quickly becoming known as a "foodie" town with loads of restaurants offering every kind of cuisine.
